Behind Closed Doors:

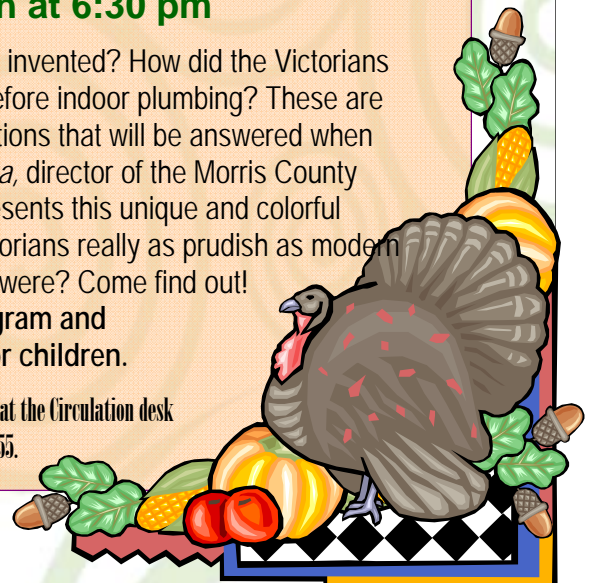

Health, Hygiene, and Sexuality Among the Victorians*

November 24th at 6:30 pm

When was toothpaste invented? How did the Victorians go to the bathroom before indoor plumbing? These are just a few of the questions that will be answered when Bonnie-Lynn Nadzeika, director of the Morris County Historical Society, presents this unique and colorful lecture. Were the Victorians really as prudish as modern Americans think they were? Come find out!

This is an adult program and is not appropriate for children.

*Please sign up for this program at the Circulation desk or call the Library at 973-627-6555.
