I want to tell you I visited the Denville Library FaceBook page and I was so happy to find Peter Zablocki’s Presentation "Denville Goes to War" archived as a youtube. Both my husband and I really enjoyed watching it today. And afterwards my son had to see some of it. Thank you so much for organizing these online presentations and even more so archiving them. After we saw that presentation I saw your 5 minutes presentation on creating the Greek spice pack and how you used it in a Greek salad, talking about healthy eating. I am putting in the link of the Denville Library Facebook as well as the Denville Library Website in the upcoming GFWC Woman’s Club of Denville Rockaway May Newsletter. I thought the Denville Library Facebook, which I looked at the first time today, was great for archiving past Denville Library virtual events.”
